

WNCAA in the News

MOST INNOVATIVE BROADSHEET 2018
44TH PHILIPPINES BUSINESS EXPO

NEWSSTAND FRONTPAGE NEWS - COMMENTARY - SPORTS - BUSINESS LIFESTYLE SPOTLIGHT HOTSPOT - TRIBUNENOW - JOBS MORE -

LATEST

CEU, UA&P off to flying start in WNCAA

Published 5 hours ago on September 25, 2019 06:30 AM
By TDT

The CEU squad that will try to end a eight-month WNCAA senior basketball drought.

- Centro Escolar University showed why it is the eight-time defending champion right on the opening day of the WNCAA Season 50, trouncing University of Makati, 69-37, at Mall of Asia Arena in Pasay City.
- University of Asia & the Pacific also dominated San Beda College-Alabang, 60-34, in the other senior match.
- The CEU Lady Scorpions are also the defending champions in senior volleyball, cheerleading and badminton.
- The basketball matches were played after the opening ceremony graced by Manila Mayor Iloko Moseno and the hip hop dance competition won by St. Paul College Pasig (junior) and UA&P (senior).

Senior hip hop dance champion University of Asia & the Pacific.

On Sunday, all but one of seven volleyball games were decided in straight sets at St. Scholastica gym.

San Beda got back at UA&P, 25-15, 25-23, 25-15; Assumption College San Lorenzo downed Philippine Women's U, 25-18, 25-19, 25-11; and UMAK beat St. Scholastica's College, 25-9, 25-19, 25-11, in the seniors level.

In midgets play, De La Salle Zobel waylaid St. Stephen's High School, 25-3, 25-1; newcomer Assumption Antipolo overcame defending champion St. Paul College Pasig, 25-17, 25-19; Miriam College beat Assumption San Lorenzo, 25-21, 25-23; and St. Scholastica put one over San Beda, 25-11, 20-25, 25-16.

The futsal competition will start 29 September at St. Paul Pasig gym.

CEU, UA&P off to flying start in WNCAA

September 25, 2019

Daily Tribune - <https://tribune.net.ph/index.php/2019/09/25/ceu-uap-off-to-flying-start-in-wncaa/>

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS
GLOBAL MEDIA PARTNER

MOST INNOVATIVE BROADSHEET
2018

44TH
PHILIPPINES
BUSINESS
EXPO

NEWSSTAND FRONTPAGE NEWS - COMMENTARY - SPORTS - BUSINESS LIFESTYLE SPOTLIGHT HOTSPOT - TRIBUNENOW - JOBS MORE -

HOOPS

WNCAA gets under way

Published 6 days ago on September 19, 2019 01:25 AM

By John Eric Mendoza

An explosive basketball double-header ushers the opening of Season 50 Women's National Collegiate Athletic Association (WNCAA) this Saturday at the Mall of Asia Arena.

Eight-time champion Centro Escolar University tips things off when it battles University of Makati at 2 p.m. while San Beda Alabang clashes with University of Asia and the Pacific in the 3 p.m. battle of the opening salvo of this women's grassroots competition.

WNCAA executive director Vivian Manila said they anticipate another banner year now that they are entering their golden anniversary.

"The WNCAA laid out the path for women players to succeed in different fields, not just in sports," said Manila during the press launch of the new season branded as "Destined for Greatness."

Manila Mayor Isko Moreno and former St. Scholastica's College cager Justine Ferrer will grace the opening ceremonies.

WNCAA gets under way

September 19, 2019

Daily Tribune - <https://tribune.net.ph/index.php/2019/09/19/wncaa-gets-under-way/>

MOST INNOVATIVE BROADSHEET 2018
44TH PHILIPPINES BUSINESS EXPO

NEWSSTAND FRONTPAGE NEWS - COMMENTARY - SPORTS - BUSINESS LIFESTYLE SPOTLIGHT HOTSPOT - TRIBUNENOW - JOBS MORE -

LATEST

WNCAA enters golden year

Published 7 days ago on September 18, 2019 08:07 PM
By TDT

WNCAA officials show off their water tumblers, the league's way of supporting the environmental campaign of banning single-use plastics.

Centro Escolar University kicks off its bid for a ninth straight senior basketball title in the Women's National Collegiate Athletic Association (WNCAA) which unveils its golden year on Saturday at Mall of Asia Arena in Pasay.

CEU will face University of Makati at 2 p.m. while San Beda College Alabang and University of Asia & the Pacific collide at 3:30 p.m., the inaugural senior basketball games of Season 50.

After the 10:30 opening ceremony which will have Manila Mayor Isko Moreno as guest of honor, CEU will get a chance to become the season's first titlist when it defends its senior hip hop dance crown while Miriam tries to repeat in the juniors level.

Poveda and Angelicum-University of Santo Tomas are on leave but the league welcomed Assumption Antipolo as the 15th active member this season.

Other participating schools in Season 50, aptly themed "Destined for Greatness" and co-hosted by all members, are St. Paul College Pasig, Philippine Women's University, De La Salle Zobel, Assumption College San Lorenzo, Chiang Kai Shek College, La Salle College Antipolo, St. Scholastica's College, St. Stephen's High School and St. Jude Catholic School.

Aside from basketball and hip hop dance, they will also vie for titles in volleyball, cheerdance (midgets), cheerleading (seniors and juniors), badminton, futsal, taekwondo (poomsae and kyorugi), softball, swimming, lawn tennis and table tennis.

"The WNCAA is the real grassroots tournament because our players go on to play in national teams and other bigger leagues," said WNCAA executive director Ma. Vivian Manila during Wednesday's Season 50 launch at Aristocrat Malate in Manila.

Philippine Sports Commissioner Celia Kiram also lauded the WNCAA, to be led this year by president Yolanda Co of CKSC, for uplifting women athletes.

"Women power is on full display here and WNCAA athletes continue to bring honors in all fronts," said Kiram

Volleyball matches begin Sunday while futsal commences on 29 September. The rest of the events in the country's first and only tri-level league for women will be played starting January 2020.

WNCAA enters golden year

September 18, 2019

Daily Tribune - <https://tribune.net.ph/index.php/2019/09/18/wncaa-enters-golden-year/>

Home / SPORTS / BASKETBALL

WNCAA launches 50th season at MOA

posted September 18, 2019 at 08:50 pm
by Peter Atencio

With 15 schools joining this season, the Women's National Collegiate Athletic Association celebrates its 50th season with a two-game bill when the basketball games commence on September 21 at the Mall of Asia Arena.

Philippine Sports Commissioner Celia Kiram (left) administers the oaths of office of the WNCAA Season 50 officers led by president Yolanda Co

WNCAA singkuwenta na

SALAMAT sa Women's National Collegiate Athletic Association (WNCAA), patuloy na nagkakaroon ng oportunidad ang mga babaeng atleta na ipakita ang kanilang husay sa larangan ng isports.

Dagdag pa rito ang pagkakaroon ng mga kababaihan ng pantay na karapatan na nagbibigay sa kanila ng lakas upang ipakita sa mundo na kaya nilang magbigay ng karangalan hindi lamang para kani-kanilang paaralan kundi para na rin sa bansa.

Ganito ang WNCAA@50 na makulay na umarangkada noong Setyembre 21 sa Mall of Asia Arena. Sa kanilang ika-50 season ay sakto ang temang "Destined for Greatness."

Bakit nga naman hindi?

Hindi na mabilang ang mga atletang gal-ing sa WNCAA na sumikat hindi lang sa isports kundi sa negosyo, edukasyon at iba't iba pang mga gawain.

Kahit na isang sports league kasi ang WNCAA ay priority pa rin liga ang mabigyan ng tamang karunungan at pag-aaral ang mga atleta nito.

PTT at Wish 107.5 Bus

Hindi lang kilala ang PTT Philippines sa mahusay na pagnenegosyo, kundi sa pagkakaroon nito ng corporate social responsibility.

Pasok na rin sa isports ang pinakamalaking kompanya ng langis mula sa kaharian ng Thailand dito sa Pilipinas ngunit kamakailan ay musika naman ang pinasok ng kompanya na siguradong patok sa atin mga peeps.

Opisyal na "fuel partner" ang PTT ng sikat na Wish 107.5 Bus na kilala sa pagbibigay ng musika sa daan. Selyado ang kasunduan sa pagitan ng PTT at Wish 107.5 Bus kamakailan. Dumating sa okasyon na tinam- pukan ni DJ Alice sina PTT Philippines President & Chief Executive Officer Thitiroj Rergsumran at Jay Eusebio, Vice President for Marketing of Break-through and Milestones Productions International (BMPI), Inc.

May 155 gas stations ang PTT Oil and Retail Business sa Luzon, kabilang ang Metro Manila, Cebu at Visayas.

PEKS MAN

BY DENNIS EROA

From Bandera Sports' Peks Man column of Mr. Dennis Eroa

LATEST

WNCAA enters golden year

Published 2 mins ago on September 18, 2019 08:07 PM
By TDT

WNCAA officials show off their water tumblers, the league's way of supporting the environmental campaign of banning single-use plastics.

Centro Escolar University kicks off its bid for a ninth straight senior basketball title in the Women's National Collegiate Athletic Association (WNCAA) which unveils its golden year on Saturday at Mall of Asia Arena in Pasay.

CEU will face University of Makati at 2 p.m. while San Beda College Alabang and University of Asia & the Pacific collide at 3:30 p.m., the inaugural senior basketball games of Season 50.

NEW CLICK HERE TO EXPLORE SPIN LIFE

BASKETBALL

CEU eyes eighth straight title as WNCAA Season 49 opens

by MEI-LIN LOZADA

AUG 29, 2018

40
SHARES

